IMPORTANT INSTRUCTIONS

On arrival, all trailed cars should be off-loaded in the top paddock.

All participating pupils will be directed, by a marshal, to administration in the Club House, where you will sign on and be fitted with a helmet if required. Helmets must be worn on the course.

As soon as you have signed on, attach your numbers to the top left of windscreen or nearside head-lamp and nearside rear (a marshal will be available with masking tape to help) and if you are wearing overalls please put them on now.

Please remember to remove any loose objects ie tools, cameras, umbrellas etc from the car - these can either be left in the Club House or the Paddock.

PLEASE NOTE—If your car is not fitted with seatbelts your instructor will be unable to sit in with you.

NO TAX, NO MoT, NO RUN

RED FLAGS

Red Flag means STOP. Do not proceed unless instructed by a marshal.

PROCEDURE AFTER WALKING THE COURSE

After walking the course you will go back to your car, which is parked behind the Club House. Please wait in your car until directed by the marshals to go to the top of the hill and park in the paddock.

TOILET FACILITIES

There are toilets in the Club House and also in the top paddock.

DRINKS

Complimentary cold drinks are available in the top paddock.
