

Club Membership

You will need to be a member of an active motor club recognised by the Motorsports Association (MSA). The British Automobile Racing Club (BARC) is a good place to start. Visit www.BARC.net to join.

Competition Licence

Speed Non-Race National B is the minimum requirement for entry. Go to www.MSAUK.org to apply.

When you receive your licence you will also get the MSA yearbook, known as 'The Blue Book'. This contains information regarding rules, regulations and procedures for all forms of Motorsport.

Protective Clothing

All must be of a standard approved for use in motorsport – see MSA Blue Book. Use of Fire Resistant underwear and boots isn't compulsory but is advised.

- Helmet
- Race Suit
- Gloves

Vehicle

Vehicles are split into various classes, dependant on specification and conformity to class regulations.

Roadgoing classes are a good place to start. Minimum requirements to enter your vehicle into a roadgoing class are to:

- Have a vehicle that is in good all-round condition with valid MOT, Road tax & Insurance.
- Indicate with a sticker which way to turn either the ignition key or cut out switch to off.
- Have a yellow battery earth cable or mark the earth cable with yellow tape.
- Have your race numbers clearly visible on both sides of the vehicle
- Affix a timing splitter / strut to the front of the vehicle – see 'Blue Book' for dimensions and fitment criteria.

Event Entry

Now all that's needed is to enter for your 1st competition. See www.harewoodhill.com for our quick and easy online entry system.
